I'm a Frontend Engineer with 3+ Year experience and solid ability in Core JavaScript and modern frontend frameworks. My solid foundation in JavaScript enables me to write clean, efficient, and scalable code, while also mastering libraries and frameworks like React.js, Next.js, Tiptap and TypeScript to build high-performance web applications. Beyond frontend work, I'm actively expanding my skills towards backend development, DevOps practices, and cloud deployment. Mostly I am a hard worker, always ready to accept challenges.
